TO: CLUB FOR GROWTH

FROM: BRYON ALLEN

SUBJECT: ALABAMA SENATE POLLING

DATE: MARCH 20, 2019

A recent Alabama poll conducted by WPA Intelligence on behalf of the Club for Growth shows that Congressman Mo Brooks would be well positioned in the Senate race, leading declared candidate Bradley Byrne by a sizeable margin.

Mo Brooks leads Bradley Byrne by double digits in a potential head-to-head match-up

In a head-to-head match-up, Brooks leads Byrne by eleven points with one-quarter of primary voters undecided.

Mo Brooks	43%
Bradley Byrne	32%
Undecided	25%

Brooks would be the clear conservative in a race against Byrne and would capture the most reliable primary voting groups.

Mo Brooks would lead Bradley Byrne by 15 points among the 57% of primary voters who describe themselves as very conservative, would lead by eighteen points among the two-in-five primary voters who think of themselves as "Trump Republicans," and would lead by 43 points among the one-in-ten who think of themselves as "Tea Party Republicans."

	Very Conservative RPVs	Trump Republicans	Tea Party Republicans
Mo Brooks	44%	46%	65%
Bradley Byrne	29%	28%	21%
Undecided	27%	30%	14%

Methodology

WPAi conducted a poll of n = 501 Alabama likely Republican Primary voters. Interviews were conducted via live telephone interview from March 10-12, 2019; 37% of the interviews were conducted via cell phone. The survey has a margin of error of +4.4%.
